

We are currently seeking a dedicated casual Outside School Hours (OSH) Care Educator to commence with us as soon as possible.

Are you someone who is passionate about childcare and can build strong relationships with children?

If so, we are seeking OSHCare staff who have completed, or are working towards a childcare related Diploma or Certificate 3, hold a Working with Children card (or are willing to obtain), and are trained in First Aid, CPR and anaphylaxis (or are willing to be).

You must be available to work between 6:00am to 8:30am and 2:15pm to 6:00pm, Monday to Friday. During vacation care, you must have availability to work between 6:30am to 5:30pm.

As for the role, your responsibilities will include (but not be limited to):

- Supervising and supporting school-aged children
- Engaging in programming and observations while remaining compliant
- Having knowledge of the My Time Our Place framework
- Creating safe and positive environments for children
- Providing light cleaning duties
- Preparing food

An online application form must accompany your CV. This form is available from our website: <https://mcc.qld.edu.au/careers/>
